

ANNUAL REPORT 2022 - 2023

Paradise Valley Community College

PARADISE VALLEY
COMMUNITY COLLEGE
A MARICOPA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Message from the President

I am delighted to share Paradise Valley Community College's 2022-23 Annual Report! There are some exciting updates, which illuminate the perseverance and intentional work we all do to meet and exceed our student success goals. This report highlights our foremost community partnerships, academic accomplishments and generous philanthropic supporters. It also illustrates our desire to establish an environment that welcomes every student so they may feel they belong at PVCC while pursuing their goals, which is as important as the education they pursue.

This past year we've had the pleasure and opportunity to partner with local, forward-thinking organizations to provide pathways for our students to succeed. Collaborations such as the Puma Empowerment Center with Dress for Success Phoenix provided PVCC students in need with free clothing and coaching for job interviews. This significant support will prepare students to embark upon the careers they've been working toward in their classes and practical training. They can now move forward with confidence and guidance because of this unique partnership.

We also installed a Ben's Bells 'Be Kind' mural in the Student Union. Faculty and staff contributed to the mural by creating and placing tiles in the mosaic. It fills a wall from floor to ceiling, reminding those who pass by to be kind and civil to one another and support the wellbeing of those around them.

We've also put care and effort into initiating and activating our 2023-26 Strategic Plan, as it will serve as a guide as we strive to meet the desired outcomes for student success.

Additionally, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Engagement (DEIE) and more opportunities to support student learning, personal growth, career development and positive social change remain key aspects of our work with the intention of helping our students achieve their goals.

Student success initiatives are always at the forefront of our commitments. And to this end, the efforts of our faculty, staff, community members, donors and partners are both awe-inspiring and unmatched. I invite you to engage with us to support this success.

I want to extend my sincere thanks to all of you for all that you are doing to ensure that PVCC is meeting the needs of our community through strong collaborative partnerships, relevant programming options, quality teaching and learning, and genuine care and support for all because everyone should feel welcomed every time they come to our campuses.

We're proud of the value PVCC brings to the community. Hard yet joyful work continues on and around our campuses, out in the community and wherever our students take it as they journey on into the world with all of our support. Let's keep moving forward, together.

Dr. Tiffany E. Hunter

PVCC's satellite campus at Black Mountain sprawls more than 80 acres of desert, serving students from surrounding suburbs including North Phoenix, Carefree, Cave Creek and Scottsdale. The Black Mountain campus comprises Aquila Hall and Orion Hall – both named after constellations that share the sky along the celestial equator. As such, the campus is home to a high-powered, 14-inch Schmidt Cassegrain telescope and viewing

Academics

Fields of Interest (FOI)

Designated Fields of Interest (FOIs) organize degrees and certificates into categories that share similar areas of study, allowing students to identify skills and interests geared toward specific careers best for them.

The student journey consists of the following elements:

- The student identifies an FOI to clearly outline their path to success and achieve their educational goals.
- The student attends a mandatory Puma Power-up session to choose their FOI and a follow-up New Student Orientation (NSO) in their chosen FOI.

- The student's First Year Experience (FYE) includes regular interaction with designated faculty and staff to create a sense of belonging and purpose.
- Throughout their time at PVCC, the student is supported by FOI Care Teams that include both peer and faculty mentors, as well as a variety of campus resources.
- When the student successfully completes their program of study, they are encouraged to join the PVCC Alumni Association. The Association is a network of proud Pumas supporting each other and encouraging new students to engage in all our college has to offer

University Partnerships

PVCC is proud of our university partnerships for those students wanting to transfer to a four-year program to complete their bachelor's degree. By beginning their academic career at PVCC, they will experience lower tuition, small class sizes and university credits that can be applied when they're ready to transfer.

Academics

Community Partnerships

Corporate, community and governmental partners recognize that PVCC boasts impressive academic programs and that our students are top-tier talent essential for fueling the local economy. PVCC engages donors to give of their time, treasure and talent to enhance the experience of students and transform our community.

- American Medical Response (AMR) generously donated a fully-equipped ambulance to PVCC's Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) and Paramedicine program. The ambulance will serve as a hands-on educational resource for PVCC's integrated health science center projects in which students from several programs come together for integrated learning experiences.
- The PVCC food pantry rebranded to the Puma Empowerment Center featuring a satellite location for Dress for Success Phoenix, a non-profit organization providing professional attire and support and development tools to help women thrive in work and life. The center serves men and women throughout the community including providing professional attire, coaching, workshops on job procurement, resume writing, interviewing and more.

This strategic alliance between education, business and non-profit partners provides students the opportunity to acquire in-demand job skills and offers guaranteed interviews at Jackson Hewitt for Fresh Start women and PVCC students who successfully complete the Enrolled Agent program.

- Working in collaboration with private and public health partners throughout our community, the Integrated Health Science Center provides an integrated model for health and well-being through preventative care services, health screenings and education. The goal is to improve the health and wellness of the communities in and around PVCC hosting wellness events, creating access to healthcare and education, and empowering individuals to live their healthiest and fullest lives.

•PVCC's partnerships with Jackson Hewitt Tax Service and Fresh Start Women's Foundation expands the pool of highly qualified tax preparers.

This program received significant media attention including a talk show interview (CW7 Arizona Daily Mix) featuring PVCC's Dean of Students Jen Miller and Dress for Success CEO Tamala McBath.

Strategic Highlights

01. Ensure high levels of student success with equity and an excellent experience

- PVCC scaled up the use of open educational resources (OER) including textbooks, library subscription sources and high-quality open-access materials free to students. Over the past four years, our “Zero Cost” team has helped students save more than $400,000 in textbook costs and supported the development of zero-cost courses in psychology, English, communications, theatre, mathematics, nutritional science and art history.
- The PVCC Nursing program ranked ninth in the state as recognized by Registered Nursing. This distinction was based upon the percentage of students passing the NCLEX-RN student exam.
- PVCC launched a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree in Elementary Education and Special Education in conjunction with two other Maricopa colleges – Rio Salado College and Glendale Community College. This is the first bachelor’s degree to be offered at PVCC.

- Named a 2022 REACH Chapter at the REACH Rewards program, the chapter also earned the Chapter Award for Excellence for their college project submission, one of the top three college projects recognized in the Arizona Region.
- In its first year, PVCC’s Cyber Security Associate of Applied Science (AAS) program earned high accolades and positive feedback, thanks in part to a grant initiative helping to recruit and retain disadvantaged students in underrepresented communities. PVCC was one of only 14 community colleges nationwide to be selected as a recipient of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) cybersecurity grant.
- Four Pumas were awarded the Digital Education Toolbox from the North American Reggio Emilia Alliance (NAREA), a network of educators, parents, and advocates dedicated to enhancing both the quality of life and education for young children.

More than 500 PVCC students and nearly 50 PVUSD educators representing 320 classes have benefitted from the impact of the VIPCC program.

03. Build a great workplace through organizational and operational effectiveness

- PVCC launched the Maricopa Business Institute bringing students and business employers together to create a stronger workforce that positions organizations and Greater Phoenix for ongoing success. The institute offers a comprehensive approach to meeting business needs through a combination of core academic and certificate programs and career and alumni services.
- PVCC continues to adorn its Union Hills campus with beautiful and impactful ceramic mural projects that represent diversity, equity, and inclusion – all of which are part of the college's vision and values. The flower-shaped mural stands front and center in PVCC's Puma Cafe in the KSC building and is a steadfast reminder of PVCC's ongoing commitment and work in civility, care, and kindness.
- PVCC students continue to work with HonorHealth, multiple law enforcement agencies, medical emergency services, and other organizations to offer full-scale emergency response drills. These comprehensive training exercises demonstrate active response capabilities, coordination and communication during emergency situations.

The grant supports her desire to develop a stochastic computer software code to generate dynamically shifting movement patterns for LED light rays.
